

Call for papers – Paris, December 6, 2024

The Banque de France is organizing a workshop on “Global Currencies” in its headquarters in Paris, on December 6.

Background and Objective:

The objective of the workshop is to bring together researchers that work on the intersection of international economics, macroeconomics and financial markets. Both empirical and theoretical contributions to the workshop are very welcome. The workshop will take place at the headquarters of the Banque de France in Paris and last for one day. Both academic researchers as well as researchers from national central banks and other institutions are welcome.

- Dominant Currencies
- Exchange Rates
- Convenience Yields
- Sovereign Debt and the International Economy
- Current Account Dynamics
- International Fiscal and Monetary Policy

Submissions:

Please submit a full script of your paper (PDF) to GLOBAL.CURRENCIES@banque-france.fr. The deadline for submissions is September 1st, 2024. Only papers submitted by the deadline will be considered. Notification of acceptance will be given by end of September 2024. Travel and accommodation costs for presenters of accepted contributions will be covered for researchers from universities. Details will be circulated after notification of acceptance.

For any further information or questions, please send an email to the organizers.

Organizers:

Kai Arvai (Banque de France)
Charles Serfaty (Banque de France)

Location:

Banque de France 31 Rue Croix des Petits Champs, 75001 Paris, France